

Isolation

By Sol Lorio

Staying at home
All alone with your family,
You don't see anyone.
You don't go anywhere.
It may be boring at times,
But it is necessary
And not all bad.
You get to sleep in
And make a nice breakfast.
Some people may be greedy,
But more are kind.
They work at stores
And at hospitals,
All coming together,
Playing their part to win.
