

What I Miss about School

By Robert George

I used to dread walking through the front doors of school.
I never thought I would miss it, but I was proven wrong.
I miss my friends, my classes, everything at home feels so long.
There was more motivation at school, whereas here I have none.
I'm learning next to nothing at home, at school I learn a ton.
At school we had less work, at home we have more.
All my work is becoming a chore.
I just want to go back to school, even though I despised it before.
Now all I do at home is sleep and snore.
At school I knew I had to do work.
At home I feel like I can't do anything.
All of my school work is like a sting.
I just want to go back to school, to be with all of my friends.
I can't be at home any longer, I need a cleanse.