503 LATIN, 10-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Completion of 9th-grade English or permission of teacher

Latin significantly influenced the grammar and vocabulary of many modern languages, including English, 70% of whose words have Latin roots. Students in this course learn basic Latin grammar, syntax, and vocabulary, with particular attention to English derivatives. Lessons are based on Greek and Roman myths adapted from Ovid's Metamorphoses.

562 SPANISH FOUNDATIONS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Spanish Foundations is an introductory, project-based course that builds confidence in students prior to taking Spanish I, as well as reinforces the basics for students who have taken Spanish I. It is a thematic, vocabulary-building class that introduces Spanish-language study around topics such as school life, family, food and music, and the home, to name a few. The cultures of a variety of Spanish-speaking countries will be discussed and/or presented throughout the year via research projects. Cultural topics include folk festivals and customs, touristic places, native species, native products, and influential Hispanic people, among others. Cooking and authentic films will supplement the program of study.

512 SPANISH I, 9-12 (1 credit)

This course is designed to encompass the four areas of language: reading, writing, listening, and speaking, with an emphasis on orally directed questions and responses. This course moves at a relaxed pace with much repetition to ensure that students have a solid base for continuing Spanish studies. An introduction to Spanish-speaking countries is presented, with an emphasis on Mexico and Spain. Students are encouraged to recognize and appreciate the contributions of the Hispanic culture to our society. The primary text is Buen Viaje, with videos, CDs, DVDs, and authentic realia supplementing the program. Students will work on projects, skits, and presentations during the year. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture.

505 SPANISH I HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Spanish I Honors contains the same elements as the Spanish I program but moves at an accelerated rate for the motivated language learner.

522 SPANISH II, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish I, Spanish I Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

Spanish II builds upon the acquired skills of Spanish I. Students write compositions with moderately complex syntax, grammar, and vocabulary. Proficiency continues to grow in reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills. Two required research papers this year focus on Central and South American studies. There are required projects with presentations that vary yearly. Examples are: traveling to a ski resort in a Spanish-speaking country, designing a movie poster, creating a clothing catalogue, designing a menu for an imaginary restaurant. The primary text is Bienvenidos, with videos, CDs, DVDs, and authentic realia supplementing the program. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture.

575 SPANISH II HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish I, Spanish I Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

Spanish II Honors contains the same elements as the Spanish II program but moves at an accelerated rate. The text, Bienvenidos, is completed and accompanied by readings from the text Vistazos I.

532 SPANISH III, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish II, Spanish II Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

Spanish III students continue to practice acquired skills with emphasis on accurate pronunciation, increased reading, and more lengthy compositions and presentations. Complex syntax, grammar, and vocabulary are studied here. Cultural study includes planning an authentic train trip in Spain, a cooking project/student prepared meal, and a research project on influential Hispanics and their many contributions. The texts Bienvenidos and Buen Viaje are used, with videos, CDs, DVDs, and authentic realia supplementing the program. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture.

585 SPANISH III HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish II, Spanish II Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

Spanish III Honors contains the same elements as Spanish III but moves at an accelerated rate to provide greater proficiency in reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills. The text Abordo is used. Throughout the year, the class watches different Spanish movies to advance listening and comprehension skills. The class is taught in Spanish, and students are encouraged to speak. There are required projects related to Spanish speaking countries. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture.

546 SPANISH IV, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish III, Spanish III Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

This class is conducted primarily in Spanish to improve speaking and listening proficiency. Proficiency is further enhanced through the program Mi Vida Loca, an interactive experience in which the students become tourists in Spain and the Canary Islands, and become involved in a mystery. Students also view the video program La Catrina. A workbook accompanies this "telenovela" on Mexico and the Mexican Revolution. Students complete a city map project which enables them to learn how to ask for and give directions to one another. A novel by a Latin American author is required (read in English), followed by an oral presentation in a relaxed, book club setting. A verb list project completes the year and may accompany students to college. Videos, CDs, DVDs, and authentic realia supplement the program. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture. Completion of this four-year sequence will fulfill the language requirements and recommendations of all colleges and universities.

595 SPANISH IV HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: Spanish III, Spanish III Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

This class is conducted primarily in Spanish to improve speaking and listening proficiency. Listening proficiency is further enhanced through the video programs Mi Vida Loca and/or La Catrina. A workbook of reading and writing activities accompanies the telenovela, La Catrina, on Mexico and the Mexican Revolution. An advanced reader, Susana y Javier en España, stretches the students' knowledge of the language through many grammatical and vocabulary activities. A novel by a Latin American author is required (read in English), followed by an oral presentation in a relaxed, book club setting. A verb list project completes the year and may accompany students to college. Videos, CDs, DVDs, and authentic realia supplement the program. Hispanic Culture Week, held in the spring, includes speakers from the community, faculty, and students sharing their travel experiences, heritage, and culture. Completion of this four-year sequence will fulfill the language requirements and recommendations of all colleges and universities.

510 FRENCH I, 9-12 (1 credit)

This course is designed to encompass the four areas of language learning: reading, writing, listening, and speaking, with an emphasis on orally directed questions and answers, paired activities, and small group work. The textbook, Bon Voyage, weaves Francophone culture into the course. The material is covered at a relaxed pace with much repetition, and includes poetry, songs, and games so that students can acquire a strong vocabulary base to build on. This course gives a solid foundation in order to continue studying French.

515 FRENCH I HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

This course uses and encompasses the same skills as French 1 but moves at an accelerated rate for the motivated language student. Games, poetry, and songs continue to aid the students in understanding the art of the word in French. Pronunciation games will be an element of this course as in the French I level. A cooking lesson or two will be included this year as an introduction to the importance of the art of cooking in French society. This course requires attention to details and strong note-taking skills. The Bon Voyage 1 textbook will be used in this course.

520 FRENCH II, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: French I, French I Honors, or qualifying grade on placement test

This is a continuation of French I, focusing primarily on building a basic French vocabulary and familiarity with simple grammatical structures while continuing to explore Francophone cultures around the world. The Bon Voyage 1 textbook will be used in this course.

525 FRENCH II HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: French I, French I Honors, or qualifying grade on a placement test

This course continues to examine the language and culture of the French-speaking world. It is faster paced for the motivated language learner. This course will require good listening and note-taking skills. The Bon Voyage 1 textbook will be used in this course.

535 FRENCH III HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: French II, French II Honors (recommended), or qualifying grade on a placement test

The focus of this course is to provide the fundamentals of French grammar as well as an introduction to French literature. Throughout the year, the students learn the major tenses and grammatical constructions that have not already been covered in their previous two years of study. They will also be introduced to a variety of short stories and poetry, and will be writing in these mediums as well.

555 FRENCH IV HONORS, 9-12 (1 credit)

Prerequisite: French III Honors or qualifying grade on a placement test

This course focuses on speaking, listening, reading, and writing. The textbooks Bon Voyage 2 and Tresors du Temps, with its texts on the prehistory of France through the modern division of the provinces and departments of the country, will lead students through a comprehensive grammar review, more complex syntax, and advanced reading material. Excerpts from Le Petit Nicolas with its humorous short stories and Le Petit Prince with its lovely images will also provide plenty of opportunity for the motivated student to get acquainted with the many expressions and idioms of the French language. Completion of this four-year sequence will fulfill the language requirements and recommendations of all colleges and universities.

514 MANDARIN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE, 10-12 (1/2 credit)

Prerequisite: completion of two years of Spanish or French; or taking French II or Spanish II as a corequisite.

Mandarin Language and Culture is an introduction to the essential elements of Chinese language and culture for students who have already had a base of language learning in either French or Spanish. This one semester course will introduce the basics of Chinese grammar, the origins of Chinese characters and introductory vocabulary. The course will also include the study of a range of topics in Chinese culture.
